

Keyword rules provide no probabilities, so Brier/calibration are not assigned to them. All methods use the same held-out narratives.